- Attach your manuscript in prepared using Microsoft Word software in doc or docx format. Do not upload in Pdf format!
- Your manuscript should be prepared based on our manuscript template file. The template file in doc version could be downloaded from the JRNC home page: <http://www.springer.com/chemistry/journal/10967>

The screenshot shows the Springer website for the Journal of Radioanalytical and Nuclear Chemistry. The main content area includes the journal title, a cover image, and details such as the Editor-in-Chief (Zsolt Révay), ISSN numbers, and the journal number (10967). A 'Read Online' button is visible. The sidebar on the right contains a list of links for authors and editors, including 'Manuscript template (Word) (doc, 162 kB)', 'Copyright Transfer Statement', 'Notes for Conferences Organizers', 'Reviewers Checklist', 'Author Academy: Training for Authors', 'English Language Editing', and 'Copyright information'. A red arrow points to the 'Manuscript template (Word) (doc, 162 kB)' link.

These are some very typical mistakes we see very often:

- several authors do not use our template
- the manuscripts should be uploaded in doc/docx and not in pdf version!

- some abstracts are too long (maximum 50-100 words). Introductory remarks should be avoided!
- tables should be submitted in editable format (doc/docx) and NOT as figures!
- some figures are not good enough to reproduce. Figures should be submitted in tiff/jpeg format with 300 dpi resolution (min. 1200x1200 pixels).
- references are not well formatted. See our template!
- we are fine with non-English references cited in the manuscripts, but according to our policy non-English references can be cited by the authors only if 1) the named reference has at least an abstract in English AND 2) it has a DOI number too.

9. Upload the "Copyright Transfer Statement".
10. Follow rest of the instructions and submit your manuscript.
11. Immediately after successful submission you will get an automated e-mail with "JRNC - Submission Confirmation" on the Subject line.
12. All papers submitted to JRNC will be verified by a plagiarism/self-plagiarism software. If the manuscript contains several long word-by-word quotations from copyrighted publications it will be rejected!
13. Please do not hesitate to contact Tibor G. Kocsor (Tibor.Kocsor@akademiai.hu) if you face any problem in uploading your manuscript.
14. Thank you for your cooperation.

Please note that all manuscripts will be properly peer-reviewed while the final acceptance of the manuscript will be sent by Dr. Zsolt Revay, editor-in-chief of JRNC.
